Attn: OP922H

SUBJECT: Request for Comments and Concurrence

1. Transmitted herewith, for your use and retention, are five copies of a preliminary report, CIA/RR GR-84, Soviet Exploration and Research in the Antarctic, 2 November 1975 (SECRET), copy nos. 53-57.
2. The attached study was prepared in a preliminary edition in order to meet the requirements of certain requesters.
3. It would be highly desirable if your office could review the paper and submit comments and a statement of concurrence concerning the facts and appraisal contained therein.
4. The preparing office of this paper has suggested the following components receive copies of this report and submit comments, inasmuch as the Office of Research and Reports feels that these components are knowledgeable of the information contained in this paper:

OP696C
OP603
OP922F
OP922Y
OP33B
5. The forwarding of this document to these components, if you deem it advisable, or to components which you believe would have an interest in the subject, will be appreciated.
6. Such comments will be of value in the revision of the paper which will be undertaken shortly. It would also be helpful if a reply could be provided within two weeks of the date of this memorandum.
7. Copies of this report have been forwarded to Admiral Richard E. Byrd, officer in charge of U. S. Antarctic Programs.
